WET!

It's wet out. Wet my pants. Wet behind the ears. All wet. Al Smith was a wet. Wet blanket. Wet dream. Wet your whistle. Wet n' wild.

It's the WET! show at Luise Ross Gallery, a presentation of images and sculpture that ranges from the damp to the humid, the moist to the saturated--with a little bit of the dank for good measure. Mixing disparate images and unlikely subjects, WET! glistens with beauty, sensuality and base humor.

The steady flow of these wet creations washes the walls of the gallery for the months of June and July, featuring work by:
